Data protection and privacy policy

Privacy

This statement relates to our privacy practices in connection with this website. Saltburn Photographic Society is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of any other websites.

Collection and use of personal information

Saltburn Photographic Society does not collect any personal data about you on this website. Any personal information which you volunteer to Saltburn Photographic Society (for example by e-mailing us, or filling out our application form) will be treated with the highest standards of security and confidentiality, strictly in accordance with the Data Protection Act, 1988. Any information which you provide in this way is not made available to any third parties, and is used by Saltburn Photographic Society only in line with the purpose for which you provided it.

Collection and use of technical information

Technical details in connection with visits to this website are logged by our Internet hosting provider for statistical purposes. No information is collected that could be used by us to identify website visitors. This website does not use cookies. The technical details logged are confined to the following items:

1. The IP address of the visitor's web client;
2. The top-level domain name used (for example .i.e., .com, .org, .net, .co.uk);
3. The previous website address from which the visitor reached us, including any search terms used;
4. click stream data which shows the traffic of visitors around this website (for example pages accessed and documents downloaded);
5. The type of web browser used by the website visitor.

Saltburn Photographic Society will make no attempt to identify individual visitors, or to associate the technical details listed above with any individual. It is the policy of Saltburn Photographic Society never to disclose such technical information in respect of individual website visitors to any third party (apart from our Internet hosting provider, which records such data on our behalf and which is bound by confidentiality provisions in this regard), unless obliged to disclose such information by a rule of law.

The technical information will be used only by Saltburn Photographic Society, and only for statistical and other administrative purposes. You should note that technical details, which we cannot associate with any identifiable individual, do not constitute "personal data" for the purposes of the Data Protection Act, 1988. You can find more information on data protection on the Data Protection Commissioner's website.
